

Criteria for award of diploma Upper Secondary School Business Diploma

The course programme has been permeated with

- o Historical perspective
- o Entrepreneurial perspective
- o Diversity and human rights
- o Ethic perspective
- o Sustainability
- o Global perspective
- o Scientific perspective

Business competence - The student must have

- o understands how systems, processes and flows work in
- o can read an annual report and understand the connecti
- o can collect and compile market information in the form
- o can deal with documentation, accounting records and i
- o can compile monthly accounts, annual accounts and in

Digital competence - The student must have de

- o can deal with basic software for calculations and simul
- o has an understanding of the interconnection of admin
- o can apply their business competence through the use c
- o can use web-based computer platforms.

Linguistic and communicative competence - Th

- o can present general and financial information verbally
- o can communicate using financial terminology, at least i

Social skills - The course programme has contained con

- o work well in different kinds of work groups;
- o act with integrity and a critical approach;
- o be enterprising, flexible, dedicated, outgoing and servie
- o be able to manage internal and external contacts in a p

General

- o A student who is awarded a diploma has completed the
- o accreditation body for the Upper Secondary School Bu
- o The course programme comprised at least 600 credits
- o Business Administration.
- o The student has taken at least up to and including Stag
- o by Mother Tongue Studies).

- o The student has taken at least up to and including Mat
 - o an approved Upper Secondary Diploma Project of 100
 - o The course programme has contained reality-based lea
-

